EPRO Expands Broad Network of Representatives

Three new team members bring EPRO products and expertise to New York Metro and Phoenix markets

WICHITA, KS... EPRO Services, Inc. (EPRO), an innovator of composite waterproofing, methane mitigation, and vapor intrusion systems, announces three key additions to their growing representative base, enabling the company to better serve its customers nationwide.

In the New York Metro market, Denis Brown brings a wealth of expertise to represent EPRO.

“New York is such a unique market. With the strong relationships Denis has cultivated, we are excited by the significant opportunities and projects in this area,” says Peter Grant, Vice President of Sales and Marketing, EPRO, Inc.

Brown is the owner of Building & Restoration Technology, a full-service manufacturer’s rep firm that provides waterproofing and restoration solutions to architects, engineers, and contractors. He has been working as a sales and marketing representative at various operations since 2012.

“I am excited to work with EPRO and offer something different to the New York market, “ says Brown. “Now I have a full below-grade system to offer my clients, which will both help me bring my business to the next level and hopefully bring EPRO to a new level as well.”

In the Phoenix market, Tom Ulrich and Tom Shuey bring more than 50 years of combined experience to represent EPRO. Ulrich is President of Section 7 Marketing, and Shuey is a Marketing Representative with the company.

“We are excited by the high level of experience Tom Ulrich and Tom Shuey bring to our Arizona base,” says Kevin Polk, President, EPRO, Inc. “Their industry knowledge and skill in the field will be a significant asset to our team.”

Ulrich has been involved in the construction industry for more than 30 years and currently is Chief Executive Officer for Section 7 Marketing. Previous positions held by Mr. Ulrich include Territory Manager, Branch Manager, and National Accounts Manager for Owens Corning Fiberglas™ in Chicago, IL.

Shuey has served the building materials and construction industry for more than 20 years. His responsibilities have included sales and marketing positions, as well as various management positions with Allied Building Products. Tom currently is a principal at Section 7 Marketing and is serving as Chief Operating Officer.

“Working with EPRO has provided new opportunities for growth for us with the addition of excellent products and services,” says Ulrich. “Tom Shuey and myself head up the sales group with Tom Shuey being the Team Leader. We look forward to a successful future in representing EPRO.”
